

Linwood L. Jones

March 15, 1967 - June 22, 2003

Linwood L. Jones, Jr. departed this life at the Johns Hopkins Hospital on June 22, 2003. He was the son of Linwood L. Sr and Lydia Jones. He was born on March 15, 1967 in Baltimore, Maryland. Linwood attended the Baltimore City Public Schools and received his GED on August 31, 1993. Linwood loved to lift weights and boy did he love oldies but goodies. He had a great talent for drawing which he thoroughly enjoyed and shared with his family. His favorite portraits were the ones he drew from family photos. Linwood worked for several construction companies before finally joining his father working for the family business, Grenada Construction Company. Linwood loved his family and was always willing to help people whenever he needed. Linwood was well loved and will be greatly missed. Linwood leaves to cherish his memory: his father and mother; two sons, Tavon and Ravon Jones; two brothers, Adrian Jones and Gerald Jones; grandmother, Lydia Cox of North Carolina; four aunts, four uncles, a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.
