

Linwood O. Bolling

May 9, 1934 - June 24, 2007

LINWOOD O. BOLLING, son of the late John and Ethel Bolling, was born on May 9, 1934 in Richmond, Virginia. Linwood was the ninth of ten children. All preceded him in death. He departed this life on June 24, 2007. He attended public schools in Richmond, Virginia. He accepted Christ at an early age and attended First Baptist of South Richmond, Virginia. He met the love of his life, the former Carrie Elizabeth Morris, in 1955. They moved to Baltimore, Maryland in 1956 to start their lives together. They were married in 1971 and had one son, Lyndell. Linwood became employed with Cat's Paw Rubber then later became employed with the City of Baltimore as a heavy equipment operator, where he remained for thirty years until his retirement. He enjoyed retirement life and lived life to the fullest. He loved taking walks with his wife, traveling and joking with family and friends. Linwood also had a love for food, always enjoying apple pie, spoon bread and lake trout. When he wanted to relax, watching sports was his favorite pastime. Linwood made numerous friends and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was a great friend and devoted family man. He leaves to cherish his memory: his devoted and loving wife, Carrie E. Bolling; sons, Lyndell Bolling and Linwood Fisher of Virginia; daughter, Patricia McCoy of Virginia; grandchildren, Brian Bolling, Lyndell A. Bolling and Stacie D. Hudgins; daughter-in-law, Ericka D. Bolling; son-in-law, Frank McCoy; and a host of devoted nieces, nephews and friends.

“ To the family of Mr. Bolling, please accept my sympathy. Jehovah, the God of comfort, gives much comfort and love when we are facing trials. 1st Cor 1:3,4. he has promised in his word that one day all sickness and death will be gone from the earth. At that time he promises to wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more. Rev. 21:4. Then all of these in the memrial tombs will hear his voice and come out. John 5:28,29. I pray that you receive the comfort that you need, and the strength to go on.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy to Mr. Bolling's family and friends. The loss of a loved one is very painful and and difficult to bear that is why the Bible calls death an enemy. At 1 Corinthians 15:26 God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes. I sincerely hope that this encouraging message from God, who "cannot lie", will comfort your heart. “ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4 ) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares- "There is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." Acts 24:15 May you receive much comfort, hope and strength as you think on this loving promise of our Creator Jehovah God and his Son Jesus Christ.
