

Lisa Danita Cotman

January 19, 1967 - February 4, 2022

Lisa Danita Cotman, 55 of Highland Springs entered into eternal rest on February 4, 2022.

Lisa was the second oldest and had a heart that was big and opened. She was an awesome sister, a wonderful mother, and a terrific daughter. At an early age, she played clarinet, a skill she learned when she attended Robert Fulton elementary school. She was also an avid roller skater and enjoyed nights at Skate Land on Williamsburg Road. Lisa talked to her mother everyday, at times seeming like it would be for the entire day. She shared a lot of adventures with her cousins, family, and friends from going to Pennsylvania and eating on Cotman Boulevard, to seeing Prince in concert, to the numerous trips to Buckroe Beach as a little girl. She was baptized at Rising Mt. Zion Baptist Church and later became a member of St. John Baptist Church in Charles City, VA. Lisa was a fighter. Whether it was for her sisters or when she needed a kidney and our sister Felicia unselfishly gave her one of hers. Was she perfect, no she loved the Cowboys her only fault. Lisa loved her boys there was nothing she wouldn't do for them and nothing she wouldn't sacrifice for them, they are her biggest achievement. From attending little league games and practices to multiple trips back and forth to their colleges.

Lisa worked at Byrd Airport now Richmond International Airport while attending Varina High School. She worked for more than two decades at Bank of America, with her current job being "K" Line America.

Lisa leaves to cherish her memory her sons Darian and Darius Cotman, who she loved to no end. Her parents Marian and John Cotman, her sisters Sandie and Felicia Cotman, Nina Cotman Pollard (Darryl), Jodie Robinson, and Jaime Adkins Dabney. Aunts, uncles, nieces (2 devoted Ashley and Paris), nephews, cousins, and a host of other relatives and friends. To know her is to love her would be an understatement. We will miss her beyond measure.

“ To Darian, Darius and Cotman family, my deepest condolences to you.

I meant Lisa 13 years ago when she first started with "K" Line America. Little did I know four years ago with the transition of "K" Line & ONE we would become co-workers in the Import Department. I came from the payroll department not knowing anything about the Import Customer Service. Lisa taught me everything I needed to know in this field. "K" Line was lucky to have her dedication, job knowledge and the ability to keep the customers happy. Her famous words over the phone was "SIR" "SIR" we all knew when she said "SIR" she had a customer that wasn't happy. Lisa was good at resolving the issues.

Lisa and I were more than just co-workers, we were friends. Working from home the past two years we talked every day, first thing in the morning we would start our day with a phone call about our daily job duties, then throughout the day and many calls we talked about more than just work. If Matt (our boss) only knew how often we talked. Maybe he knew. Lisa and I worked very well together. She truly was the best co-worker I ever had. I use to tell Lisa all the time she was the best co-worker.

I'm going to miss her.

If I could write a story it would surely be about Lisa. To the Cotman family, Lisa is a testimony and tribute to me and so many others. We worked at Bank of America for 16 years. "DJ and Peewee" as we knew them, were the highlight of our conversations. Boys, now young men, your Mom had a love for you like no other. I can still see the many art drawings on the cubicle pasted on the wall from both of you. The pictures that she had hanging from her desk were a reflection that was much deeper, these pictures were attached close to her heart. Mrs. Cotman, she spoke of you and her sisters often, always with love and appreciation for all of you. Lisa helped me along the way, not only with work, but loving me through some times where she filled the role of a big sister I never had. Lisa planted lots of good seeds and I know your family is a beautiful tribute behind her heart. She will always hold a special and dear place in my heart with eternal memories. May God continue to uplift you and send you reminders that your sweet Lisa fly's heavenly high among all of you. Much love, prayer, and encouragement to all of you. Missy Lloyd
