“ Our hearts are heavy today as we celebrate the life of our daughter and friend. We have shared so many years together singing on the choir; ushering; spending time at each others houses and just having fun. Lisa was like a daughter to us and we thank God for the time that He allowed us to know her and her family. We will continue to lift her family up in our prayers that God will give them strength to endure. This is not goodbye Lisa, it is just see you later, for indeed we will see you again someday in heaven. Love you with all our heart, Pastors Donald and Glenda Smith.
