

Lisa Mae Hardimon

June 12, 1965 - January 2, 2025

Lisa Mae (Burgess) Hardimon was born June 12, 1965, in Halifax County, NC. She is the third child of Susie Mae (Alston) Burgess and Robert Lee Burgess. Lisa accepted Christ at an early age and was educated in the Richmond Public Schools system graduating in 1983 from Armstrong-Kennedy High School.

She worked various state government jobs including, the Virginia Secretary of the Commonwealth Office; Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals; Virginia State Police; and retired from state government with the Virginia Dept. of Vital Records & Statistics in 2018.

Lisa married Thorvard (Carlos) Hardimon in 1996. She has two beloved daughters, Jarre Symone Bishop-Hardimon and LaShona Mae Hardimon. She was very proud and praised them often for their successes and accomplishments.

Lisa was a very selfless woman and dedicated the latter years of her life as caretaker of family members, whom she loved beyond measure. Lisa lived life on her own terms, and always enjoyed traveling with family and friends.

Lisa was preceded in death by her sister Bettie Uwaeme, her father, (My Daddy) Robert L. Burgess and nephew Terrence Burgess. She leaves to cherish her memories, her mother, Susie M. Burgess, her husband of nearly 30 years, Thorvard C. Hardimon, two daughters, Jarre Bishop-Hardimon and LaShona Hardimon, sisters, Janice (Carl) Johnson and Alberta Burgess; nephew, Carl Johnson; niece, Jessica L. Johnson, all of Richmond, VA. Brother-in-law, Cedric J. Hardimon (Karen), from Houston, TX and Sister-in-laws, Angela M. Payne of Laurel, MD Deborah C. Moore (Larry) and Arlene Moore both of Houston TX and a host of many other relatives and friends.
