

Lisa Michelle Ashe

April 26, 1964 - September 14, 2006

Lisa Michelle Jones Ashe was born April 26, 1964 in Baltimore, Maryland to Lee Morris Jones, Sr. and Joyce Chatmon. She departed this life on September 14, 2006, following a lengthy illness. At an early age she accepted Christ and joined Union Baptist Church. Lisa was the second born of five children. Her brother Geoffrey Anthony preceded her in death. During her formative years, her life was blessed by a loving stepfather, Jesse Edward McCoy, Sr. and supportive extended family. She was the granddaughter of the late William and Pearl Chatmon, the late Andrew and Julia Jones and the late Mary J. McCoy. Lisa was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System, where she excelled academically. She took great pride and “authority” in her position as the eldest sibling, though she was physically the smallest in stature. She further enjoyed “pulling rank” on her cousins as the oldest grandchild. Lisa had a contagious smile and healthy sense of humor, which often included laughing at her anxiety to tell a joke, and her inability to remember the punchline. She enjoyed playing board games (as long as she was winning) and made many friends (as long as she was in charge). Lisa loved watching old black and white movies, shared a passion for music (especially the artist known as Prince), and her favorite color was yellow. She also had fun “experimenting” with new recipes. On June 24, 1989, Lisa married James Alphonso Ashe, Jr. During this union they became the proud parents of their only child, James A. Ashe, III, who they treasure and adore. Those left to cherish her memory are her devoted husband James A. Ashe, Jr., beloved son James A. Ashe, III, loving mother Joyce Chatmon, father Lee M. Jones, Sr., stepfather Jesse Edward McCoy, Sr., two sisters Monica Lynne and Michonne Yvette, brother Lee M. Jones, Jr., step brother Jesse Edward McCoy, Jr., father-in-law James A. Ashe, Sr., four sisters-in-law Cassandra, Pamela, Eleanor and Audra, six brothers-in-law Anthony, Antonio, Kenneth, William, Michael and Cleveland, five aunts Barbara, Linda, Roslyn, Gaye and Thomasine, four uncles Victor, Joseph, Phillip, Sr. and Alton, special grandmother Evelyn Chatmon and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, family and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Mrs. Ashe. One day the pain of sickness and death will be a thing of the past. Rev. 21:4 promises, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away. Remember that Jehovah God loves us, and is the God of all comfort. So please turn to him for strength and comfort as you mourn the passing of your dear one.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy that we never get used to. But the Bible gives us hope for a resurrection at John 5:28-29 where Jesus promises that, "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". This scripture has brought comfort to many. I hope that this will comfort you as well.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. First Corinthians 15:26 rightly tells us that death is our enemy. That same verse reveals that Almighty God will destroy death itself. There is much hope of our dead loved ones returning to life because Acts 24:15 declares "...there is going to be a resurrection.." That will be in a new world with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain.(Revelation 21:3-5; Isaiah 65:17) May you receive much solace, strength and support from friends, family and the many loving promises from the Bible.##imported-begin##S. “ DEAR FAMILY, MAY YOU FIND SOLACE IN GOD'S WORD THE BIBLE AS YOU COPE WITH THE LOSS OF YOUR LOVED ONE. HAPPINESS WILL SOON BE YOURS AS GOD HAS A YEARNING TO UNDUE ALL THAT DEATH HAS CAUSED. (JOB 14:14,15) MAY YOU HAVE CONFIDENCE IN ALL THAT GOD PROMISES ESPECIALLY SINCE THOSE WHO HAVE DIED ARE IN GOD'S MEMORY. (MALACHI 3:16)##imported-begin##MICHELLE##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4)who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ Aunt Joyce, Lezlie, Mom Roslyn, P.J. and family... I was looking at this website here @ work, actually for someone else and something told me to read this one. I am so sorry that I didn't know about Lisa's homegoing. I spent most of my teenage life as Lezlie's best friend and always thought of everyone as my second family, from Pop-Pop all the way to Aunt Patsy. I remember Lisa very well and I join you in spirit today to celebrate her life, because she, like everyone else, always treated me like I was a member of the family (she used to "pull rank" on me too). I wish I'd known sooner, so that I could have been there for all of you, but please know that even though I haven't seen you all in a very long time, I still love you just the same as I did when Lezlie and I were @ Western High together. Justin and I will continue to keep you all in our prayers and our hearts (especially his "Aunt Lee") as we hope you will keep us in yours. I thank God for the blessing of Lisa and your entire family. I Love All of You, Kim J (and Justin)##imported-begin##Kim Jones##imported-end##
