

Lisa A Staton

August 26, 1966 - January 16, 2023

Lisa Andrea Staton daughter of Larry Horrey and the late Veda Mae Greene was born on August 26, 1966. On January 16, 2023. The Lord open the heaven gates to call his child home to rest in eternal peace.

At a very young age Lisa gave her life to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Lisa received her education in the Baltimore City School System. As she grew older you can find Lisa attending many different Churches. Dancing, trying to sing and attending family functions was something she loved to do.

Lisa welcome her one and only Baby Boy “Robbie” into this world, where she became a mother and shortly after the wife to Richard Staton. These men was her world, you couldn’t say anything about her two guys because she would be quick to put you in your place without hesitation as they would do the same about her.

This love grew even stronger when she received the news of becoming a grandmother to Shamaal and her “Wiggles”. Although Lisa was known to be the family cry baby, to those men she showed tough love and discipline because she wanted the best for all four of her men.

As time continue Lisa will be missed by many family. And friends, we will miss her laughs, sarcasm, jokes, wise, advice, motherly love that she shared with not only her child but her nieces, nephews, and many others who came into her and became family as she was known as the neighborhood mother.

Lisa was preceded in eternal life by the late Brother Carol Maurice (Shorty) and reunited as the 3 stooges with her Mother Veda Hartley r, and sister Monica Horrey

Leave to mourn Husband; Richard Staton, Father Larry Horrey, Son Robert Martin, 2 brothers; Ralph and Troy, 1 sister; Lynn, 2 grandsons Shamaal and Robert, Jr, 2 nephews; Derrick & Eric, 1 Niece Erica, her bonus son: Michael, and a host of great nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles and cousins,
