

Lisia Diane Earley

December 13, 1963 - July 3, 2022

Obituary

Lisia Earley was born in Richmond, Virginia to the late Rudolph V. Earley and Ann L. Mitchell on December 13, 1963.

On “Sunday” July 3, 2022, the Lord called our mother home peacefully surrounded by family after enduring a long battle with breast cancer.

Lisia was educated in Richmond City Public Schools where she graduated from Marshall-Walker High School in June 1982. Lisia accepted Our Lord, Jesus Christ and joined Faith Landmark Church.

Lisia had a calling to help those in need. Through her calling, she fostered many of the neighborhood children. Her family remembers her as a kind woman of few words. Whether it was planning gatherings in the community or feeding the needy in the community, Lisia made an impact on all those in her company.

After graduating from high school, Lisia worked at Crown’s Gas Station (later Peoples Gas Station) for 11 years. She later worked at Walmart Supercenter in the Deli department. After 11 years, she was transferred to Sam’s Club where she was a Door Greeter before she became ill.

Lisia leaves to cherish in her memory her loving and devoted family. She is survived by long time devoted love, Kenneth Johnson Sr.; one loving daughter, Kelly Earley, three devoted sons, Kenneth Johnson Jr. (Marchelle Lee), Kevin Earley all of Richmond, VA and Corey Earley of New Cairo, Egypt; three sisters, Cynthia Armstrong, Martha Earley, and Tonya Terry (Lance); three brothers, Rudolph Earley Jr. (Jackie), Hubert Earley, and Rickey Earley all of Richmond, VA; four aunts, Constance Rock, Jean Brown, Shirley Green all of Richmond, VA and Laura Kincaid of Elizabethton, TN; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends. "Grandma" leaves to cherish her memory, five grandchildren, Marques Johnson, Kennijah Johnson, Kennedy Johnson, Aarya Inge, and Kenya Johnson all of Richmond, VA. She will be greatly missed, but never forgotten. Lisia was loved by all.

“ Lisa's smile

What's in Lisa's smile

A warm friendly person with a whole lot of love for others

A kindness that was there for someone in need

One who thought of other before herself

Wide arms that was waiting to give you a bear hug to take the pain away

Ears that was willing to listen to your challenges in mist of her fight with cancer

I found much joy in Lisa' smile

“ Pastors Randy and Cherie and the FLM staff and church family send their heart felt condolences on the passing of our dear sister Lisia. Always upbeat and ready to lend a helping hand she and Cynthia were the dynamic duo. We know that God never forgets us no matter what we are facing or doing. In Him we are more than conquerors. Lisia stands now with the heavenly host-absent from body now present with the Lord. Cynthia-You are still here to build His Kingdom here on earth. We will be looking forward for you to come and stand in your place of ministry. We will continue to pray for you and your family as the sun rises each day.

“ My sincere condolences and prayers of continued comfort and strength to the family. I have nothing but fond memories of Lisia and I will forever hold them near. We have shared some really good times from skating on Friday nights on Williamsburg Road dressed alike. And getting our daughters Erica and Kelly ready for their Sunburst beauty pageants. She was a dedicated friend with nothing but smiles and loving words always. Lisia continued to stay positive even when things were rough. And don't forget spell her name right or you would definitely hear it from her lol. I promise "dimples" I will always smile when I talk about you. Rest in paradise my friend with much love.
