

Littell Joseph Ayles, Jr.

February 1, 1938 - January 4, 2016

Our beloved Littell Joseph Ayles Jr. was born February 1, 1938 in Philadelphia Pennsylvania to the late Helen T. Robinson Ayles and Littell J. Ayles.

Littell, known as “Junior” by family and friends, attended West Philadelphia High school. He always had a great thirst for education. He would spend hours in the library (one of his favorite places) studying and teaching himself various subjects.

Junior also had a remarkable memory often recalling things from his youth with great attention to detail.

His favorite subjects in school were French and Latin, but he also loved Science and World History. National Geographic was one his favorite publications to read because of its stories about other countries accompanied with vibrant photographs that fed his desire to travel.

Junior was an explorer with a very adventurous nature. His constant quest to learn and experience new places was ever present so it was only natural for him to love to watch the Discovery channel.

He is fondly remembered for his courage, optimism, and strong faith in God. Regardless the circumstances faced, Junior continued to thank God for his blessings.

He leaves to cherish his memory a brother, Carlton Ayles; niece, Monica Walden; two nephews, Eric Robinson (Carolyn) and Donald Walden Jr., and a host of other relatives and caring friends.

“ So sorry for your loss . How comforting to know that Almighty God has not only the power but the desire to reunite us with our loved ones by means of the resurrection hope Jesus spoke of in the Bible at John 5 : 21,28,29 when both sickness and death will be no more as promised in Revelation 21 : 3,4
