

Lizzie S. Bivins

August 6, 1938 - April 19, 2011

LIZZIE SUE BIVINS, began her life on Thursday, August 6, 1938. She was born to Charles and Viola Valentine in Greenville, South Carolina. She departed this life after a lengthy illness on April 19, 2011.

She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. She graduated From Coppin State University where she received her Bachelor of Arts Degree in Early Childhood Education.

From this union of Sue and Samuel B. Mitchell, Sr. a son was born, Samuel B. Mitchell, Jr.

She later married Henry A. Bivins, II on February 19, 1966 and from this union three children were born, Cassandra Bivins, Caressa Bivins and Henry Bivins, III.

She was affectionately known as “Aunt Sue” throughout her family and neighborhood, but was known and loved by her grandchildren as “Nanny.”

She taught in the Baltimore City School System, before retiring early. But she stayed active with children and was always teaching them.

She loved her dog, Hercules. She also loved to go shopping. She was a member of Second Shiloh Church of God where she attended regularly until her illness.

Later in life, Sue took up poetry. She performed at the Blacks in Wax Museum, Artscape and the Eubie Blake Cultural Center.

Anyone that knew Sue knew she had an open door and an open heart. You will never meet anyone like "Aunt Sue." Sue was extremely proud and loved all her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Sue leaves to cherish her loving memory: two daughters, Cassandra and Caressa Bivins; two sons, Samuel B. Mitchell, Jr. (Jeanie) and Henry A. Bivins, III (LilQuenda); six grandchildren, Samuel III (Tracy), Jasmine, T'Asia, Davon, Caressa and Jonathan; two great-grandchildren, Taylor and Ashly; brother, Thomas Valentine; a special nephew, Frank Valentine, III; a host of nieces, nephews, friends and other relatives.

“ (Romans 15:4) For all the things that were written aforetime were written for our instruction, that through our endurance and through the comfort from the Scriptures we might have hope.

I am one of the international Bible Students in the area. I would like to send condolences to the family. There is a God of comfort and you can read your Bible so that he can help you during this time in your life. I hope these scriptures help comfort you.

(John 5:28-29) Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.

To The Family of Lizzie S. Bivens:

May the God of Love bestow a calming peace with your family during and after this most sorrowful time. It's truly a reality that when a love one dies whether young or older the pain one suffers doesn't vary due to age, gender, nationality or physical build. The pain suffered is the same no matter the circumstances. It hurts and leaves voids in many of our lives because our love ones impact our lives in some form or fashion that kept a family connection. This is why death is not a welcome blessing but it is a curse and an enemy to all. (1Cor 15:26) In Jehovah God's own time He will remove that threat to all men. Yes God has promised according to Rev 21:4 death will be no more. Jehovah has given His son Jesus the authority to swallow up death forever. (Is 25:8) Also he will bring to nothing the one having the means to cause death, Satan. (Heb 2:14) However a major blessing is Jesus will resurrect those loss to death. (John 5:28-29). That includes Lizzie. She is in Jehovah God's memory awaiting the time to be among the ones Jesus will wake from the ground. (Dan 12:2) How truly blessed we are to have a creator who truly cares about us in good times and bad. Continue to trust in God and know His word is true and will prove to be. (Is 55:11) May God's spirit continue to bring comfort to you.
