

Lizzie Mae Ebron

July 26, 1918 - July 18, 2002

Lizzie Mae Ebron, daughter of the late David Henry Moore and Lenora Moore, was born on July 26, 1918 in Pitt County, North Carolina, one of eight children. She departed this life suddenly on July 18, 2002. Her brothers, Charley, John Isaac, Harvey and David Henry Moore Jr. preceded her in death. She received her education in the Pitt County Public Schools at an early age; Lizzie received Christ as her personal Savior. She was a member of St. Mary's Baptist Church in North Carolina. Until her retirement, Maryland General Hospital employed Lizzie. She was a long time member of Mt. Moriah Baptist Church. She was married to the late Offie Gaynor, and from that union was born one son, Herman Gaynor. Lizzie made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. She was always a true friend and was devoted to her family. She leaves to mourn: her devoted son, Herman Gaynor and daughter-in-law, Joan Gaynor; three sisters, Flossie Smith, Annie L. Coheus of North Carolina and Lenora Savage Highsmith of West Haven, Connecticut; sister-in-law, Maletha Moore; two brothers-in-law, Robert Smith and Rev. William Highsmith, Jr. of West Haven, Connecticut; stepdaughter, Oteia Green; granddaughter, Nil Cook; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ The richness of the human experience is in what is handed down from one life to the next –not simple things of mortar and stone, but memories of what one said or felt or did. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
