

Lloyd J. Glasper

November 19, 1962 - November 9, 2005

Lloyd Joseph Glasper, Jr., son of Lloyd and Rosa Glasper, was born November 19, 1962 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on November 9, 2005. Lloyd Jr. received his education in the public school systems of Baltimore, Maryland. He later attended a vocational school where he received his license as an auto mechanic. Until his illness, he was employed for 15 years by Benjamin Blume (Uncle Ben) at Meineke Discount Mufflers. At the age of 12, he was baptized by Reverend Douglas Wilson, Pastor of Fulton Baptist Church. He loved to hear his Uncle John sing his favorite song, "Last Mile of the Way." On October 16, 2006, he heard the Lord knocking at the door of his heart and made a triumphant return to his home church and rededicated his life to Christ. Lloyd Jr., was affectionately known as "Pooh." Pooh was kind hearted, family oriented, and made numerous friends wherever he went. Pooh will be sincerely missed by everyone. He leaves to cherish fond memories: his beloved parents, Rosa and Lloyd; two sisters, Carol and Lisa; a life long devoted friend, Eva; three children, Tiara, Trevon, and Tiauna; a niece, Erica; a nephew, Robert; a great-nephew, Marcell; and a host of relatives and friends.

“ My condolences to the family, friends & colleagues of Mr. Glasper. In this time of mourning, I'd like to offer some words of comfort. Rev. 21:4, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have past away." These are God's words, and you can rest assured that they will have results for which He sent it. May this further strengthen your relationship with our Heavenly Father.##imported-begin##Debbie Spann##imported-end##

“ I send my condolences to the family of Mr. Glasper. In your time of mourning, take comfort from John 5:28,29 which tells us "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". Thus, our dead loved ones will come to life again on this earth. May you be comforted.##imported-begin##Kendra A##imported-end##
