My sincere sympathy and condolences to the family of Dr. Lloyd Conway Jones. Lloyd (or "Sonny", as I and many of his other childhood friends knew him) was a dear family friend, and was like family. Even as a high-school student he was already exercising the skills and traits of an educator, and helped tutor me through my high-school Latin class. He will be dearly missed.

*Sincerely,
Deloris Lewis*

“ Mrs. Jones,
We are sorry to hear of the loss of your husband. We received this letter for you in the mail and after speaking with the postal worker, they no longer forward mail after the 14+ years you all have lived elsewhere. Attached are images of a note from a Ms. Deborah Waters.
Likewise, our prayer has been lifted up for you and your family during this transition in your lives.

“ Dr. Lloyd C. Jones was my principal at King William County Public Schools. He went on to become one of my best friends for the next forty years or so. He was best man at my wedding. I will miss those great lunches we had spending time to catch up. He was a man of great character who is gone too soon. I send prayers to his family and know that he will be missed. 🙏❤️

At first, to me he was Dr. Jones!
In the education field he use his God given gift of sharing wisdom , kindness , and professionalism. As co workers on differing levels we grew together together as friends. He was always ready and willing to share his wisdom and friendly nature with just about anyone who was willing to accept it!
I am blessed to have met him and call him my friend. I with so many others will miss him but will never forget one of the greatest persons I have ever met! God speed!!!

“ Dr. Jones was my high school principal. He was kind and compassionate but firm in his guidance. He has touched so many students and families. I am an educator and know that if I can give even a portion of what he gave to me, my students will do great things. Job well done sir! Condolences to the family.
