

Lloyd Lee Dunbar

March 6, 1979 - April 10, 2002

Lloyd Lee Dunbar, Jr., son of the late Lloyd L. Dunbar and Lennie Diana Dunbar, was born on March 6, 1979 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on April 10, 2002 after a brief illness. Lloyd received his early education in the Baltimore Parochial and Public School systems. He graduated from Woodlawn High School in Baltimore County. Lloyd loved to cook and held many jobs in that field. He recently worked for Warehouse Wholesalers as a Manager-Trainee. In his spare time, Lloyd loved to play video games. He also liked to odd jobs around the house in carpentry, plumbing and any electrical work. Lloyd made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He leaves to mourn: his mother, Lennie Diana Dunbar; a sister, Tashia McCready; grandmother, Elizabeth Pitt; godmother, Jestene Boone, four aunts, Gwendolyn Tubman, Dorothy Dunbar, Edith Dunbar, and Connie Dunbar; two uncles, Charles and Lonnie Dunbar; a beloved friend, Donnita Williams and a unborn son; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

“ Dear Cousin Lynne. I am sorry to hear of your loss. Lloyd was one of my younger cousins whom I admired because of his willingness to help others and work, no matter what the task involved. Even though he left us at an early age, God has given us a sign that Lloyd's work here on earth with us is done. We will just have to understand that he is a Youthful Angel that God has called to his side.##imported-begin##Nathaniel E. Pitt, Jr.##imported-end##
