

Lloyd Reed

October 30, 1945 - February 1, 2008

On February 1, 2008, our loving father, brother, and uncle passed away to be at rest with the Lord. Lloyd Reed was born on October 30, 1945 in Baltimore, Md. He was the son of the late Wayne Reed Sr. and Gertrude Lee Reed. He received his education in Baltimore City Public Schools and Baltimore City College. He accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior in 1980, and was baptized by the late Dennis Barrow of Northeast Baptist Church. He enlisted in the United States Army where he served four years of active duty. He was discharged with honors as a Vietnam Veteran, after which he continued his employment with Armco Steel Industries of twelve years and Towson State University of twenty-three years. Lloyd Reed enjoyed watching sports, playing music and cooking his favorite seafood dishes, shrimp and crab cakes. He was also known for his sense of humor and candid words of love with his family, friends and colleagues. He leaves to cherish his loving memory; his loving surviving wife, Mary Reed; his only child, Sherry Reed; two brothers, Wayne Reed Jr. and Berkley Reed; one sister, Sharlene Reed; one sister-in-law, Jimese Reed all of Baltimore, Maryland (one sister, Gloria Johnson, and one brother, Charles Reed, preceded him in death); and a host of nephews, nieces, other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ LLOYD REED

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ To Daughter of Mr. Reed: I want to sincerely thank you for sharing your dad with Towson University faculty/staff. He was truly a genuine person. On days that were trying and dismal for me on the job, I could always depend on Mr. Reed for a caring smile, word of wisdom, and humorous expression. It is not often that you meet people, who share their honest opinion without fear of consequence. Mr. Reed was a great guy. I will sorely miss my co-worker and friend. May the Lord add comfort and allow you to connect to your dad's spirit to strengthen you and keep you. Peace and Blessings, Terri Massie-Burrell Director Towson University Academic Achievement Center##imported-begin##Terri Massie-Burrell##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my condolences on the loss of your loved one. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. However, there is a source of comfort for us. God's Word, the Bible assures us that "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort...comforts us in all our tribulation." (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). It also offers us the solution to our source of distress at Acts 24:15 and John 5:28,29. Please read these verses and feel free to contact me to discuss this wonderful provision.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ In my short time knowing "Mr. Reed", I came to love him. He was always pleasant and had a smile to share with the world. He will be greatly missed. My thoughts and prayers are with your family.##imported-begin##Keisha Bownes##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Iam so sorry to hear this news, may God bless all.
Carolyn##imported-begin##Carolyn Hawkins-Tyson-Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my warm condolences. Although I didn't know Mr Reed he certainly had a beautiful smile, and you can just look at some people to see that that person was a nice person who really enjoyed his life. That is why it is so unfair that people have to lose their life when they have so much to offer, and desire to live on and fullfill their goals. This was never God's purpose for us, because he hates death, and views it as our enemy. This is why he has promised at 1st Cor 15:26, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing. He also makes this promise at Isaiah 25,8 that he will swallow up death forever and certainly wipe the tears from all faces." One day LLoyd will open his eyes again in the ressurection, because Acts 24:15 promises that there is going to be a ressurection of the righteous." May you find much comfort and strength in Jehovah's promises, and may your memories of your loved one help you to cope in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM