

Lois Jean Marks

June 24, 1938 - October 24, 2013

A queen is no longer with us For she's gone to her heavenly home. Although not in body we'll see her, but in our hearts she'll always belong. Lois Jean Marks was born to Beza and Annie Buie On June 24, 1938 She was a loving daughter and sister She was kind as she can be. On Sept. 12, 1956, she married the Late James E. Marks Sr. With two children they were blessed. James E. Marks Jr. preceded her in death. Lois Annette Marks. Mother had three dedicated & devoted nephews Roosevelt Brown (Bill) of the home, Christopher Jordan (Minneapolis), Tyrell Brown of the home whom assisted and rendered care daily. Two sisters Juanita Douglas, Blendie Buie, one brother Charles Buie, and a host of nieces, nephews and friends. Mother received Christ at an early age. She often witnessed The good things Christ had done. She was a member of Unity United Methodist Church Until stricken by illness. Cooking was her passion. Preparing scrumptious dishes That soothed and ministered to your soul. She so loved her Church and her Church Family and was heart broken when she could no longer attend. She was a kind loving woman who reached out to anyone in need. If you were hungry, she fed you. If you needed a place to stay, she opened the doors of her home. Whatever the need she helped. Mother touched so many lives, in health and sickness too. The doctors and nurses were wonderful they stood by her through and through. They said she was a strong woman, a trooper whom they drew strength from. And through it all She remained a classy elegant lady.

“ Our family would like to express condolences to your family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible. He assures us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing". Our prayers are with your family.

“ To the family of Lois Jean Marks:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32).
