

Lois Reives

October 8, 1927 - November 25, 2010

LOIS REIVES, daughter of the late Noble and Frances Reives was born on October 8, 1929 in North Carolina. She departed this life on Thursday, November 25, 2010, “ Thanksgiving Day” .

Lois was educated in the public schools of North Carolina.

In 1947, Lois moved to Baltimore, Maryland where she worked as a nurse's assistant for many years. She was a faithful member of New Psalmist Baptist Church. She was a devoted mother, grandmother, sister and friend. She truly loved her family.

Lois love to shop, be around her family, watching “ The Price Is Right” and her soap operas.

Her daughter, Betty Robbins and her son, Walter White, preceded her in death.

Lois made friends wherever she went and will be surely missed by everyone who knew her.

She leaves to mourn: her children, Denise, Alvis and James; seven grandchildren, five great-grandchildren; one sister, Frances and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ Lois Reives

“ I didn't get the pleasure to meet Lois, but it's evident from her lifespan that she had family and friends whom cherished her. With that being said there is a realistic hope to look forward to and it's brought out in God's Word; The Bible, in the book of Acts. At Acts 24:15, it assures of a resurrection, so for all whom long to hug or just long to see her again, that is possible because, " with God all things are possible."

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
