

Lola Mae Johnson

July 23, 1925 - June 12, 2012

Lola Mae Crossing Tuck Johnson was born July 23, 1925 to the late John Jasper and Alberta Hill Crossin in Norlina, NC. She was one of ten children blessed to this beloved family.

She graduated from Warren County High School in NC. where she was a member of the girls basketball team. She assisted her grandmother, Stella Hill in the upbringing of several of her siblings after the death of her mother.

She was preceded in death by her parents, eight sibling, brothers; John(Mary), William(Almeda),Ervine and Milton, sisters; Louise C. Lyons (George), Annie C. Hunter(Otis) Maggie C. Davis(Robert), Cora C. Wright(Willie) and son; Robert Earl Tuck.

She accepted Christ at an early age. After stepping out of faith and moving to Richmond, VA. In the 1950's she came with the clothes on her back and two children believing in God to be a provider. She was able to obtain days work immediately working for a lady by the name of Mrs. Hood. She was a hard worker and this was not enough so a lady by the name of Mrs. Shaffer accepted her expertise as well.

She later worked at Thalhimers Bakery where she retired. No one could make the doughnuts and cakes like she could. She met her beloved husband Fred on a GRTC bus while working there. She also enjoyed sewing and gardening. And was able to grow vegetables in numerous sizes because this was one of their passions..

She loved her church and would share with everyone that no one could bring for the word like her pastor. Pastor Andrew J. Hughes, whom she honored and her church family at New Beginnings Bible Church. She would always say that "I do not know why the Lord has me around for as long as he did but all I can do is thank Him for just keeping me". Not recognizing that from birth she was a true angel in ways that you could not imagine. She was a mother to many and was blessed by all never to complain about anything.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
