“ *To Jane & Family, Our prayers are with you and your family during this season. Please know that Miss Lola was a jewel. She has touched so many people and was unselfish with her caring, love and sharing. Miss Lola had a pure heart of gold. She always kept a door open for anyone who needed anything. And the dinners and card games at her home was something you would never forget. She was just a God sent woman to help others make it through the good and not so good times. She always no matter what would leave you with words of encouragement and a smile. May God Continue to shower your family with love and peace. “ To the family of Ms. Hall, I offer my sincere sympathy. The sorrow you are experiencing now will soon be alleviated. God promises at John 5:28,29 that all those in the memorial tombs will soon hear his voice and come out. He also lets us know, at John 3:16 and John 17:3 what we must do to witness this grand event. May this wonderful promise give you comfort now and in the days to come.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ I offer my sincere and heartfelt condolences. one day all sickness and death will be a thing of the past. Reflect on this wonderful scripture found at Isaiah 65:17. "For here I am creating new heavens and a new earth, and the former things will not be brought to mind; neither will they come up into the heart." One day we will never even think about the pain of this life, because God will erase the memories of all sadness, because he is going to cleanse the earth, and bring us true peace and security. All of the dead will be raised to enjoy endless peace and blessings, because they will hear the voice of God's son, Jesus, and they will come out of the memorial tombs. John 5:28,29. What a glorious day that will be. May the thoughts from the bible give you a hope, and comfort you to endure in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##
