“ To the family of Lola Mae Trimmer:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). My prayers & blessing go out to the rest of the family & friends. Know that God is & always will be with you & your family. He knows our arrival date & he knows our due date. Yours arrived on October 10th, much to soon for us here on earth, but right on time for God. He holds our hands and knows when its time to come home. They tell me the streets are paved with gold and we receive a brand new unbroken body. A place with no more tears, pain or sorry. Although you'll be united with your Mom & Dad, we'll miss you so much here on earth. So much love, your cousins - Diane Clory Young & Ronnie Pollard ?

“ I would like to send my condolences to the family. When someone we love dies its very painful. But the Bible talks about God doing away with pain at Rev 21:4. May the God of comfort provide solace to your family at this time.

“ Talking to Lola always lifted my spirits because she always had a "positive word" to share. She was my inspiration in knowing that trusting in God's word is all you need to do. Therefore, I know she is resting in God's arm and at peace. Alicia Baytops
