

LOLETA OUEEN DIXON

May 19, 1968 - August 4, 2020

On August 4, 2020 at 52 years of age, Loleta Queen Dixon took her rest after a long lengthy illness. Loleta Queen Dixon was born on May 19, 1968 to the late William G. Queen, and Gere Queen. Merging their blended families together they raised seven children: Alethea Ward, the late Melvin Wilson, Jr., Gere Robinson, Loleta Queen Dixon, Tammie Queen Wallace, Loveta Queen and Christopher Farmer.

Loleta was born and raised in Baltimore City. She went to Baltimore City Public Schools and graduated from Lake Clifton High School.

On September 9, 2000 she married the love of her life Vance Dixon. Merging their blended families together. They raised nine children, Albert Manning, Jr., Daryl Jones, Diamond Dixon, Jalen Dixon, Dominic Dixon, David Dixon, Vance Dixon, Jr., VonTraya Dixon, and Vemarr Dixon.

Loleta worked at Shoe Express until her illness prohibited her to no longer work.

Loleta joined and attended the Church of the Redeem of the Lord under the leadership of Bishop Jerome Strokes. Oh, how she loved hearing the man of God preach and teach the word.

Loleta loved spending time with her family and friends, she loved butterflies as well as cooking, and baking during the holiday times. Loleta sang many times with her sisters, the Queen Trio, and we all know she loved Walmart and was literally the Queen of QVC.

Loleta leaves to mourn: “seven sons, Albert Manning, Jr., Daryl Jones, Jalen Dixon, Dominic Dixon, David Dixon, Vance Dixon, Jr., and Vemarr Dixon”; two daughters, Diamond Dixon and VonTraya Dixon; her devoted loving mother, Gere Queen; one brother Christopher Farmer; four sisters, Alethea Ward, Gere Robinson, Tammie Queen Wallace and Loveta Queen; one long time devoted friend, Lisa William; one Goddaughter, L’Oreal Hunter; two brothers-in-law, Stephen Ward and David Wallace; one devoted aunt, Delores Fenner-Logan; a special nephew, Thomas Grant, Jr.; nieces, nephews, and a hos of other relatives and friends.
