

Lonnie W Howie Jr

December 7, 1967 - July 20, 2010

Lonnie William Howie, Jr., affectionately known as “Little Lonnie,” was born on December 7, 1967 at the naval hospital in St. Albans (Queens) New York. Lonnie complete his primary and secondary education in the public schools of Baltimore City, graduation from Northern High School in 1985. He later pursued studies in computer science at Brooklyn College in New York.

Lonnie was curious about mechanics and mechanical devices. In his spare time, he fixed his family’s automobiles, and once took apart his truck to see how it worked. Lonnie was naturally gifted at various trades, including painting, plumbing, masonry, carpentry, and electrical work. He often assisted family members and friends with home improvement projects. Lonnie took the time to take care of home and do anything that was needed of him. Lonnie was always ready to help others wherever he could.

For “Little Lonnie,” there were no strangers; he made friends easily and loved deeply. His family remembers fondly his warm smile, his contagious laughter and his kind spirit. He loved to laugh and to share his laughter with others. His fascination with nature inspired long walks and an appreciation for God’s creation. That same passion for the outdoors carried over into his lawn care business. In February 2008, he accepted Jesus Christ and jointed the New Shiloh Baptist Church in Baltimore. He often spoke of sermons given by his pastor, the Reverends Carter. Lonnie loved God and loved to share his knowledge with others. He used the book of Proverbs as a guide to stay focused on his daily journey through life.

Lonnie loved his family with all of his heart and he could never get enough of his mother's cooking. Lonnie looked up to his father; he admired Lonnie, Sr.'s sharp mind and leadership were reflected in Lonnie, Jr. though the skill he developed in the multiple trades he learned during his life. Lonnie, Jr. and his sister, Elisa, shared a unique humor that only close siblings could appreciate. In spite of the differences in their personalities, the bond between the two was unbreakable.

Lonnie departed this life on July 20,2010. Lonnie leave to cherish his memory, his parents, Lonnie, Sr. and Alba Howie of Ellicott City, Maryland; his sister, Elisa Howie of Baltimore; his niece, Qiana Smith of Baltimore, as well as a host of uncles, aunts, cousins and friends who will remember Little Lonnie as "forever bright".

Cemetery Details

Private

Previous Events

Visitation

JUL 30. 12:00 PM - 8:00 PM (ET)

March Funeral Homes - West Baltimore
4300 Wabash Avenue
Baltimore, MD 21215
(410) 542-2400
info@marchfh.com

Visitation

JUL 31. 1:30 PM - 2:00 PM (ET)

March Funeral Homes - West Baltimore
4300 Wabash Avenue
Baltimore, MD 21215
(410) 542-2400
info@marchfh.com

Service

JUL 31. 2:00 PM (ET)

March Funeral Homes - West Baltimore
4300 Wabash Avenue
Baltimore, MD 21215
(410) 542-2400
info@marchfh.com

Tribute Wall

“ Lonnie W Howie Jr

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Candle lit by

Janet Brown - July 28, 2010 at 10:16 AM

“ Lonnie and I was good friends in high school. I regret that I have not seen him in a long time and now I have to see him this way. His family has my deepest sympathy. May GOD bless his family.

Belinda Moore - July 27, 2010 at 07:56 AM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.

March Funeral Homes - July 23, 2010 at 01:07 PM