

Lonnie Theodore Payne

December 24, 1960 - August 18, 2007

Lonnie Theodore Payne, son of Bishop Lonnie Payne and Nora McBride, was born on December 24, 1960 in Baltimore Maryland. He departed this life suddenly on August 18, 2007. He came to be known as “Joe Louis” because he loved to box and beat on his cousin “Coke” as a child. Joe Louis received his education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. Joe loved to enjoy life, always bring laughter to anyone who was around, he would say or do anything just to make someone laugh or smile. He also loved to cook, and he would also take out time to help his dad at the shop, working on cars. Joe took up carpentry, and his favorite hobby was making jewel boxes and grandfather clocks. A very caring person, Joe took time out to care for a sick aunt. When asked to do a favor for someone, he never said no. He will be greatly missed. He leaves to mourn, his mother, Nora McBride, his father, Bishop Lonnie Payne and his (Step) mother Emma Payne, four brothers, Tyrone Payne, Joseph Payne, Charles L. Rogers, and David Rogers of Baltimore, MD; six sisters, Jakie Payne of Delaware, Ruth Payne, Emma McBride, Juanita Rogers, Patricia Rogers, Earlene Rogers, all of Baltimore, MD; one sister who preceded him in death, Phyllis M. Payne, two sisters-in-law, Brenda Rogers and Adriane Rogers of Baltimore, MD; one brother-in-law Kenneth Brown of Baltimore, MD. He leaves a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews and friends, including his “Soulmate” and girlfriend, Linda.
