

Lonnie Edward White

November 13, 1957 - August 5, 2017

God reached down from the Heavens and gently carried our beloved, Lonnie Edward White, to be with Him on Saturday, August 5, 2017 around 1;15 pm

Lonnie , the beloved son of Julia White, was born November 13, 1957. Lonnie was a very soft spoken and quite young man, unless you asked him something; you could forget holding a long conversation with him.

Lonnie attended Fort Worthington Elementary School, continuing to Patterson High School. Lonnie graduated from Patterson in 1974. He was so proud to escort his god sister, Yolanda to his prom in a 1974 Fleetwood Cadillac.

Lonnie held several jobs around Baltimore City until he joined the National Guard in 1979.

Lonnie lived with his mother and grandmother most of his adult life except the time he decided to experience living on his own. That, unfortunately, lasted only two nights.

Lonnie was a devoted son and grandson. He took special care of the house and his grandmother until her passing in 2016.

Lonnie enjoyed watching TV and debating with his brother, Billy. Lonnie was loved by his family, thought highly of by his friends and neighbors. He will be missed.

Lonnie leaves to mourn; his devoted mother, Juila D.L. White; two siblings, William F. White and Patricia M.Phillips; two uncles, Donald White and Clarence White; nephew, Marlon White; one niece, She-lar N.Skinner; nephew Dominic Skinner who preceded him in death; a devoted godmother, Jackie Wwilliams; god sister, Yolanda Williams; several devoted friends; and a host of other relatives and friends.
