Lora D. Branch

Sunrise: January 5, 1952

Sunset: August 1, 2024

Born January 5, 1952, to the late James L. and Ernestine McNeal in Sampson County, Dunn, North Carolina, Dean lived a life full of love, kindness, and dedication to her family and friends.

Dean was known for her warm and generous spirit and was affectionately called "Grandma" by many. She loved reading, playing video games, and listening to Gospel music. She loved the Lord and was a faithful Saint Paul's Baptist Church member.

She leaves to cherish her memory: three children, Tina Telfair, Andrekia Branch, and Robert Branch Jr.; four granddaughters, Brittani and Brielle Telfair, Eve and Ada Ortiz-Branch; two sisters, Joy Lee, and Rose Williams; two nieces, Leslie McNeal and Eboni Williams; one nephew, Jonathan Lee; one aunt, Ruby McPhaul; found family, Donald, Chantelle, Christina, and Christian Graves; and a host of other relatives and friends. She will forever be remembered for her beautiful soul and the love she shared with all who knew her.
