

Lora Brown Christian

April 12, 1941 - June 6, 2012

Lora Ann Brown Christian was born April 12, 1941 to the late Harry and Catherine Brown of Charles City, Virginia. She was the middle child of 12 children.

Lora was educated at and graduated from Ruthville High School. She attended Virginia State College pursuing a career as a School Teacher. On November 7, 1959, she married the love of her life, Richard Franklin Christian, Jr. This union was blessed with 5 children: Richard Franklin, III, Deidre Charmaine, Keith Leslie, Kevin Cornell, and NaTasha Elise Christian.

Lora was employed by New Kent County schools where she enjoyed assisting, teaching and mentoring the students. She shared her passion for getting a good education and she worked hard to ensure that no kid was left behind.

Lora's faith was very important to her. After accepting Jesus as her personal Lord and Savior, she grew to have an even more personal relationship with the Lord. An avid student of the Word of God, Lora began to read the Bible daily. It was at Mount Calvary Church International that she was appointed as an Elder under the Pastor who should love dearly, Bishop Raymond Otey, Sr. She served many years and worked in various ministries.

Lora's legacy continues through her children and grandchildren: Johey, Nicole, Shawn, Seth, Deborah, Leah, Maya, Jonah, Cameron, Rebekah and Sophia. She also leaves to cherish her memory 8 siblings: Phoebe, Mary O' Jean, Wayne, Mildred, Catherine Janet, Betty, Martha Diane, Zona and Gail; a best friend, Juanita Thorne, whom she loved dearly and a host of relatives and friends.

“ I am so sorry for your lost. Losing a loved one is never easy. The bible though gives us great comfort through the scriptures. At Rev 21:4, it states "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." How comforting it is to know that Jehovah God promises to do away with all of our pain and suffering.

“ I am so sorry that you lost your loved one in death. I know how it feels and I know she will be missed. May the comfort of our loving heavenly Father, as well as caring friends, help you to get through this difficult time. One day this enemy death, will be no more, and God promises to wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more, neither mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. Rev 21:4. May you find much comfort in God's promises.

To My Family,
Aunt Lora was one of the best Aunts you'd ever want to know. Always had a smile on her face know matter what. You would go to comfort her about something and she would wind up comforting you. She surely is with our Heavenly Father now looking down at us and saying " Be Strong' in all that you do. I will always remember her as the sweet,, caring , kind GOD FEARING Woman that she was. My memories are of good times with her i.e. Her teaching me how to wax Hardwood floors and getting my hair done with her at Ms. Goode's Shop. Thanks so much for the memories - We Love you,
Leda, Tommy, Tu & Talayah
