

Loraine Bell

October 12, 1929 - July 18, 2003

Loraine Bell was the daughter of the late James Barnett and the late Minnie Lee Spencer. She was born in Granger, Texas on October 12, 1929. Blessed peace came to Loraine and she departed this life to enter eternal rest on Friday, July 18, 2003 after a prolonged illness. At an early age, Loraine accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as her personal Savior and was baptized at The First Baptist Church in Austin, Texas. She joined The Fountain Baptist Church in Baltimore, Maryland in 1972 with her husband, Milton D. Bell. There they served for several years on the Young Adult Usher Board. Loraine was united in Holy Matrimony to the love of her life, Milton Donald Bell on April 22, 1955. They enjoyed a loving partnership for more than forty-eight years. Loraine and Donald had no biological children, but they had a very close loving relationship with a cousin, James Delaney Jr. who they helped nurture as a baby. He was their child and Loraine's "Cool Breeze". Another love was bowling with her husband and their dear friends, Jerry and Bill Peacock. They enjoyed many years bowling together. Other fun activities they enjoyed were traveling to Hartford, Connecticut, Las Vegas, Atlantic City and other places. Loraine leaves to cherish her memory: her beloved husband, Bell; a brother, Leroy Spencer; a niece, Tonetta and an aunt, Helen Tolden of Austin, Texas; a sister-in-law, Marion Bell and family; a devoted aunt, Florence Stokes; loving cousins, Phyllis and James Delaney; a special friend, Aline Lyde all of Baltimore, Maryland; a host of other relatives and friends.
