

Lorena Richardson-Frazier

March 10, 1930 - October 15, 2018

Lorena “Ray” Richardson Frazier, daughter of the late James Frederick Bryant, Sr. and Donnie Richardson, was born March 10, 1930 in Wilmington, NC. She departed this life peacefully on October 15, 2018.

“Ray” (known by family and friends), lived her early years in Wilmington, NC, where she attended Williston High School and was an active participant in sports. In 1958, Lorena met and later married Herman Frazier (deceased), from Loveland, Ohio, a USMC marine stationed at Camp Lejeune, NC.

During Lorena’s working years, she worked in the fashion retail industry for local merchants in downtown Wilmington. Eventually “Ray” relocated to Baltimore, MD in late 1978.

Lorena enjoyed cooking, playing cards, church, cross-word puzzles, cabarets, dancing, fishing, travelling and loved the Baltimore Orioles and her Ravens. She loved family, cherished friendships and never met a stranger.

She leaves to mourn: three sons, Jeremy V. Frazier; Randolph A. Frazier; Herman L. Frazier Jr., three daughters-in-law, grand-children, great grand-children, eight brothers and two sisters, nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.
