“ I will truly miss the beautiful spirit Grandma Massey had and the strong faith she had in God. She has been a true blessing to me over the years. I know she is smiling and saying yes. I will remember her always making remarks and then at the end saying, “Yes.” As I know her saying yes I did it, because she always had goals she wanted to meet and she did. To her Son, stand proud because you have a blessed mother. To grandchildren and great grandchildren, praise the lord because she gave you lasting values to take you far. To daughter-in-law, remember the true friend you had in a mother-in-law that other women do not get. You all are blessed.. My prayer for you is that you keep what she planted in you and that is, have strong faith in God for he will get you through this time. May God comfort you and keep you through this time. Know that she is smiling at you with her spiritual love. Laugh and say Yes as she would laugh and say yes. She is dancing like David dance because she is now with her heavenly father. “ To the family and friends of Ms Massey, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4 ) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##

“ I offer my sincere condolences to the family of Lorene. The pain we experience when a loved one dies is truly hard to come to grips with. Knowing that your Lorene had a strong faith in God I'm sure is a real comfort to you all. It's also a wonderful thing to know that our loved ones who have died have the hope of a resurrection. John 5:28,29 tells us, "Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." I hope that you receive much comfort and strength from the scriptures, and may the wonderful promises from Jehovah God carry you through.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
