

Lorene Lindsey Hembrick

January 6, 1944 - October 10, 2022

Lorene Lindsey Hembrick was born in Fairmount, North Carolina on January 6, 1944, to the late Loretta Revels and Robert E. Revels Sr.

She was preceded in death by her husband Ralph H. Hembrick; sisters Daisy Coleman and Flora Moore; and parents-in-law Dorothy and Herman Hembrick.

Lorene received her formal education at a private school before transferring to the Richmond Public School System. She left high school to raise her young family. In August of 1979, she proudly obtained her GED in Richmond, Virginia.

While Lorene was not a member of any particular church, her faith in God was always strong and unwavering. She frequently attended St. Peter Episcopal Church for her spiritual blessing.

In 1960, Lorene Lindsey and Ralph H. Hembrick were united in holy matrimony.

Lorene was employed in several places. She was a switchboard operator at Southhampton College within the University of Richmond. She later became a telephone operator at John Marshall Hotel. There she was promoted to a supervisory position for her dedicated service and hard work. Finally, Lorene was employed at Ukrop's as a deli associate where she was an outstanding employee.

She loved reading her books, enjoying music from her expansive vinyl album collection that ranged from R&B, Pop, and Classic Rock! She was also a huge fan of soap operas on CBS 6.

She leaves to cherish her memory: beloved children, Rodney A. Revels Sr., Kimberly Y. Hembrick, Karen Taylor, and Larry D. Walters; grandchildren, Rodney Revels Jr., Kametria Andrews, Darrell Taylor, Hadji Walters, and Takita Maulsby; a host of great-grandchildren; siblings, Robert Revels Jr. (Linda), Rozell Revels (Kay), Reginald Revels (Delisa Hunter), Raynard Revels (Wanda), and Cathleen Pierce; including a village of nieces, nephews, cousins; and dear neighbors from the neighborhood especially, Mr. and Mrs. Kenny Wyatt.
