

Loretta Fair

October 10, 1939 - July 3, 2015

Loretta Fair, daughter of the late Henry and Agnes Rogers, was born on October 10, 1939 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life suddenly on July 4, 2015.

Loretta received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System, graduating from Dunbar High School. She became employed at the United States Can, Steelton Plant where she worked for many years and from where she retired.

Loretta was a faithful member of the New Psalmist Baptist Church where she sang in the choir, was a member of the Flower Circle and the Senior Bingo Club. She also volunteered wherever she was needed. Loretta faithfully attended the Wednesday Prayer and Bible Study. Loretta met and married the love of her life, Nathaniel (Sonny) Fair, who preceded her in death.

She accepted Jesus Christ as her personal Savior at an early age. She not only talked the talk, she walked the walk.

Loretta leaves to mourn their loss: three sisters, Deanna, Levon and Wanda, all of Detroit, Michigan; one dear aunt, Gwendolyn Brown; special cousins, Elder Walter and Mrs. Eve Briggs; and a host of other family and friends.
