

Loretta Harris

January 11, 1964 - October 3, 2014

LORETTA HARRIS was born on January 11, 1964 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was the daughter of the late Berlene Williams and Buddy Harris. On October 3, 2014 Loretta was called home to be with the Lord after a lengthy illness. Loretta accepted Jesus Christ as her personal Savior at an early age. She was the fifth born of six children and also the baby girl of the family. She was truly special. Loretta received her education through the Baltimore City School System. She received her certification as a CNA and later became a certified medical technician. Through her love of care-taking, she then sought employment at Charlestown Retirement Community. She devoted and dedicated over 20 years of her life doing what she enjoyed. Loretta was blessed with a baby boy, Antonio Harris, in December 1980, whom she loved with all her heart. She also was a devoted "Mother" and caring "Nanna". Her grandchildren were the joy of her life. She was one who always told it like it was no matter the situation, but her honesty was well respected. She left an impression on people that was unforgettable. I guess we could say that she was heaven sent. She leaves to mourn: her only son, Antonio Harris; five grandchildren; two sisters, Charlene and Constance; three brothers, Michael, Marvin, and Carlos; brother-in-law, Bugless; four aunts, Mary Jane, Corrine, Shirley, and Dorothy Mae; two uncles, James and Otis; goddaughter, Shalaunda Santiful; her favorite nephew, Tyree Williams, along with a host of nieces, nephews, and friends.

“ I was a co-worker of Ms. Loretta at Charlestown she was a nice person. She was one of the few ladies who helped me when I came aboard on 2 North unit when I started as a GNA. I remember when she would bring her mom delicious cakes to work. She will be missed. Prayers going out to the family at their time of sorry. God bless Tyricia Brown
