

Loretta Elaine Hughes

June 18, 1947 - September 7, 2023

LORETTA E. HUGHES “LET” was born on June 18, 1947 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Olivia Fassett Mann and Elmer Fassett. She departed this life on September 7, 2023.

Loretta graduated Edmondson High School Class of 1965. There she became a well-known majorette in the marching band and then continued her education at Coppin State College.

She later married Lawrence W. Hughes Jr. (deceased) and had two children, LaWrence “Dominic” Hughes (deceased), and Leah Dominique Hughes.

Loretta worked for Social Security Administration for over 40 years. She began her career at the 707 building in Baltimore, Maryland and retired from Greene Street.

In 2014, she became Rev. Loretta E. Hughes a local Deacon at Bethel A.M.E. Church while ushering and teaching bible school every Sunday.

“Let,” as most called her, loved to sew and make clothing. She also loved to travel on bus trips to shop with Ms. Leah. She also was very creative making jewelry and personalized gifts and baskets for any occasion. She loved listening to music, her Oldies but Goodies as she called it, while playing Skipbo and enjoying her bag of jelly beans or a box of Good and Plenty and a good crab feast. She loved going line dancing with her other retired girlfriends and having fun with the “kids,” as she would say, and was ready to celebrate for every occasion.

Loretta Elaine Hughes transitioned from this life unexpectedly on September 7, 2023. She went on to meet her son, mother, father, husband and both who preceded her in death.

“Lady,” as we called her later in life, leaves to cherish her memory: her daughter, Leah Dominique Hughes; granddaughter, Diamond Jazzmia Hughes; grandsons, Kion Dominick Hughes, Dominic Lawrence Hughes and Tariq N. Davis; sister, Lorraine Fassett Rather; brother-in-law, Freddie Rather; nieces, Lisa Fassett and Patricia Hughes; nephews, Ronnie Fassett, Andre Rather, Jermaine Rather and Jermel Fassett; cousin, Donald Norwood; sisters-in-law, Linda Fassett and Denise Chappell; as well as a loving church family, sorority sisters and close friends.
