

Loretta Marcella Marshall

March 15, 1934 - March 19, 2020

Loretta MarceLLa MarshaLL, was born to the late Ellis Reynolds Reed and Anna Elizabeth Reed on March 15, 1934 in Baltimore, Maryland.

Loretta grew up in East Baltimore, where she received her education through the Baltimore City Public School Systems, attending Dunbar High School.

She met her husband Ralph, in 1964. They later married in 1975.

She went on to attend cosmetology school, obtained her senior cosmetologist license, and later opened her own beauty salon; Mark II. She also worked as a nurse for many years until she retired. Even after retirement she continued helping other people, as she had a true passion for helping others.

After retirement, she enjoyed spending time with her family, watching movies, shopping, traveling, and, decorating. She also enjoyed attending church at Bethel A.M.E. and reading scriptures.

She will be deeply missed.

Loretta leaves to cherish her memory, husband, Ralph Marshall; one daughter, Karen Marshall; five grandchildren, Dante Clark, Martrez Marshall, Martrea Marshall, Martrel Marshall, and Martrey Ellis-Marshall; two great grandchildren, Zil'laha Clark and Tatum Marshall. She was preceded in death by her three sons, Glenard Clark, Daryl Clark and Jeffrey Marshall.
