“ Hi ! Rice's ! May I take this opportunity to express my condolences to u all, the family & friends. May knowing that others care help at this time in life. Death effects all of us in one way or another. The circle of life is broken when we lose someone in death.Ms.Loretta was in her 60's and so much to live for and do. The bible help to heal our mind and body. It is good to get comfort from our heavenly father in all our tribulations as 2Cor.1:3 say. I hope these few thoughts will prove to be uplifting and postive. Sincerely, Lillian Crosby.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences for your loss. God didnt create us to die. His purpose was for mankind to live forever in a paradise of pleasure and happiness. His purpose has not changed. One day soon this earth will be a paradise, and Psalm 37,29 tells us, The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it. Before paradise is established, Isaiah 25,8 lets us know that Jehovah will swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces; for Jehovah himself has spoken it. Then according to Acts 24,15 the dead will be ressurected by the son of God, Jesus Christ. May the thought of seeing your loved one again one day comfort you, and may your precious memories of Loretta, which death can never erase, help you to cope.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
