

Loretta Tracey

January 27, 1932 - January 6, 2006

LORETTA TRACY, daughter of the late Cornelius and Phoebe Stone, was born on January 27, 1932 in Danville, Va. The family moved to Baltimore, Md. when Loretta was a child. She received her education at Carver Vocational High School. Loretta married James Grover Tracy and they raised five children; Deborah, James, Marie, Terrence, and Spencer. Loretta was a homemaker for several years and worked for Mercy. She later worked for Rosewood State Hospital and retired after twenty-two years of service. Loretta was baptized at Evangelical Baptist Church and later joined Whitestone Baptist Church where she was an active member of the Super Sixties. She loved the Lord and was forever giving Him praise. Affectionately called "Tracy" by her friends and loved ones, she was known to be compassionate, warm, and loving. Even those who came to know Tracy in her last few years often remarked on her spirited personality and good sense of humor. She will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. Loretta was preceded in death by her husband James and her son Spencer. She leaves to mourn her passing: daughters, Deborah and Marie; sons, James and Terrence; sisters, Barbara Stone, Jacquin McNeill, Valeria McIntyre, and Claudette Torbit; daughter-in-law, Surella Tracy; eleven grandchildren, Keisha, Rasheedah, Dante, Shante, Sade, Ashley, Sherrie, Trey, Kayla and Dominique; one niece, three nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My sincere condolences to the family. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. However, the bible is a source of comfort particularly at Acts 24:15 which expresses a resurrection hope. Yes, Almighty God Jehovah, through his Reigning King, Jesus Christ, will bring back our beloved ones into a paradise. May you all continue to find comfort and encouragement from the Holy Scriptures.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##

“ My most heartfelt sympathy to the family for your loss. Death is truly a most painful event that we should never have to experience. It was not a part of God's original purpose. Romans 5:12 lets us know that we die, because Adam and Eve, our foreparents, passed this legacy on to us when they sinned against Jehovah God. 1st Cor 15:22 tells us, "In Adam all are dying. but in the Christ all will be made alive." So by means of Jesus's precious blood, we can have our sins forgiven and have the chance for everlasting life. But this can only happen if we are obedient to Jehovah , and put faith in the ransom of Christ. If we do those things, he promises to restore life back to our loved ones by means of the resurrection. Acts 24:15, and Rev 21:3,4 May you find comfort in his word as well as your cherished memories.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I am sorry to learn of the loss of Loretta to death. I am sure that this must have been a difficult time for your family. I am forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalm 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. That was true when Moses wrote it, but that was not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says, It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written. But it was not the case before God passed judgment on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##
