

Loretta Ann Willoughby

March 10, 1942 - October 15, 2011

Loretta Ann Willoughby was born on March 10, 1942 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this on October 15, 2011, after a brief illness.

She was raised by her grandmother, Elsie Smith, whom she affectionately called "Teeny" or "Granny". While growing up she attended Baltimore area catholic schools.

She retired in 2009, after working for Maryland's Department of Social Services for over twenty-five years. She loved to travel, and one of her favorite places to visit was Mohegan Sun in Connecticut. She also enjoyed socializing with her friends who were members of the "Just Us Van Club".

She was predeceased by her husband, John W. Willoughby, in 1986. She leaves to mourn: one daughter, Leanora Young; special friend, Harold Moore; best friend, Marsha Smith; and a host of other sorrowing friends.
