“ Please accept my condolences on the loss of your loved one. The Bible holds out a comforting promise for our dead loved ones. I would like to share this with you. Daniel 12:2 says- "And there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." The Bible promises that they will "wake up", be brought back to life on a peaceful earth. (Psalm 37:9-11) What a happy reunion to look forward to! May these promises give you solace and strength.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for the passsing of your loved one. This "sting of death" brings with it unbearable pain and a deep void that cannot be filled. Our Heavenly Father promises though that a time will come soon when He will "wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more" according to Revelation 21:3,4.##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Isaiah 25:8,9 where God says that he will swallow up death forever and he will wipe the tears from all faces. May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##
