July 4, 1937 - October 29, 2012

LORRAINE BAILEY, daughter of the late Purnell W. and Ellen S. Bailey, was born on July 4, 1937 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on October 29, 2012 after a lengthy illness.

She received her education at the Frederick Douglass High School in Baltimore. Lorraine was employed at London Fog, then at the United States Postal Service from which she retired after twenty-nine years of dedicated service.

Lorraine had two very dear friends, Frieda and Viola, and a good friend who lives in Atlanta, Georgia that she kept in touch with on a regular basis.

Lorraine accepted Christ at an early age and attended Mount Olive Freewill Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. C. L. Whitfield. She later became a faithful member of Gospel Tabernacle Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Rev. Edgar L. Reid who was succeeded by Bishop Reginald Kennedy.

Lorraine loved spending time in the community room playing board games and having conversations with other tenants. She also enjoyed traveling to and fro until her health began to fail. Lorraine, who never had children of her own, had a great love for her nieces and nephews.

Lorraine leaves behind: brothers and sisters, Jerome, Esther Morton, Edward and Rev. Joan Bailey; three sisters-in-law, Wilma, Barbara Jean and Darlene Bailey; two aunts, Delores Wilson and Bertha Pierce; two uncles, Isaac Wilson and Arthur Pierce; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the lost of your dear loved one. It is during times like these that we can find comfort in God's word, such as the scripture at 1 Corinthians 15: 26, 55 where it assures us that soon "the last enemy, death," is to be removed. Then the foretold words will come true: "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing. Death, where is your victory? Death, where is your sting?"

“ I extend my heartfelt sympathy to the Bailey family. It is never easy to find the right words to say but may those precious memories of your dear loved one Lorraine be foremost in your hearts and minds along with this wonderful promise that Jesus gave at John 5:28,29.

“ I would like to convey my sympathy to you in the loss of your loved one. I didn't know Ms Bailey personally but I do understand the pain of losing one so dear to you. I found comfort in reading the Bible, as I'm sure you do too, so I just wanted to share with you one of my favorite accounts found in the book of John in John 11:14,14-44, here it shares with us a wonderful experience of a man named Lazarus. We can only imagine the tears of joy when every one heard Jesus call out in a loud voice, “Lazarus, come forth!” and before the very eyes of everyone gathered there he walked toward them from his memorial tomb. We too will experience such joy when John 5:25-28 is fulfilled. Please pass on my condolences to those who knew and loved Lorraine Bailey.
