

Lorraine Virginia Cephas

October 15, 1961 - May 10, 2024

Lorraine V. Cephas was born to Mrs. Delores Coffield and John Henry Cephas.

Lorraine (Lori) attended and graduated from Forest Park High School. She then attended classes at BCCC.

Lori was/is in spirit, very independent, so she began to work to support herself. Lori conducted work at warehouses working with chemicals. She then went to work at Athens Cleaners in Parkville, Maryland, that is where she met her current husband, Asim A. Bomani.

Lori's, (Shorty Short), the essence of her being still lives in the heart of her husband and those that love her. Her spirit is loving, honest, sweet, adorable, deserving to be protected on earth and now with God In Heaven. Lori's spirit is gentle, fragile, strong, independent, honorable, reliable, and non-judgmental. Lori always revered GOD The Most High. Lori's (Shorty Short), spirit is the example of when God is in Your Heart.

Lori leaves on this earth: husband, Asim A. Bomani, who cherishes her forever; her mother Delores Coffield, who truly loves her; sisters, Renee, Terri and Carolyn; brothers, Chico, Russel and Jeffrey; including so many nieces, nephews, friends and co-workers that love her and that will truly miss her presence.
