

Lorraine Lillian Smallwood

April 29, 1956 - April 28, 2009

Lorraine Lillian Smallwood and the late Joseph Smallwood were born on April 29, 1956 in Ahoskie, North Carolina. She later moved to Baltimore, Maryland where she received her education in the Baltimore Public School System. Momma (as many would call her) made many friends and was loved by everyone who she came across. She always would lend a helping hand to anyone or made sure that everyone had a place to stay. Lorraine had many titles, mother, sister, aunt, wife and friend. Yet the one thing that was music to her ears and filled her heart with joy was Nanny. She devoted most of her time to her grandchildren. There was nothing she loved to do more than spend time with all of them. She leaves to cherish her precious memories; a lifetime partner Joseph Wiley, seven children; Donald, Sophia, (Despond Allen) Serena, Raymond, Sebrina (Antonio Walker), Tiara (Robert Bradley and Lavania (Bird) only one sister Vallestine Smallwood (preceding her in death) one daughter-in-law Yasmeen Smallwood, twenty-six grandchildren a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and other relatives including three special friends, Larry Moble, Edward Tillery and Geneva Allen.

“ To the family of Lorraine Smallwood: May the peace of God comfort all in the family during this difficult time. Even though Lorraine passed in April, no doubt the pain is still there. The sacrifice of Jesus Christ makes this hope possible found at John 5:28,29. There Jesus will say to all those in the memorial tombs come out. The resurrection hope is real and Jesus death makes it all possible. In the meantime, take further comfort found at Psalms 55:22 where God will sustain you and not allow the righteous one to totter or become unsteady. May you continue to endure.##imported-begin##D.
