“ To Liz, Lump, Robin, and the rest of the family...Please know that my prayers are with you in the lost of your mom, my aunt. I take refuge in knowing that her salvation has been made manifest as she has peacefully slipped out of time and into eternity. As the hymn says, "when we all get to Heaven what a day of rejoicing that will be; when we all see Jesus we'll sing and shout the victory." Aunt Lo is shouting up a storm right now! God's grace will carry you through this bittersweet time. Love you all!!! - Mikey###imported-begin###Michael###imported-end###

“ I would just like to share a comforting thought from the scriptures with the family of Lorraine. I know your hearts are full of pain, but know that our loving father cares for you, and will help you to get through this sad time in your lives. 1st Peter 5,7. Also, please keep in mind that the dead shall live again, because Rev 21,4 says this: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away." Isaiah 25,8 also lets us know that Jehovah God will swallow up death forever, and he will certainly wipe the tears from all faces." I hope that you find strength and comfort from the bible, and please remember Acts 24,15 which promises that there will be a resurrection of the dead. May your cherished memories of Lorraine be a source of comfort to you as well.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the Macklin Family, Some time has passed since the death of your dear loved one, but as most people know who loses a loved one to death, the mourning and sadness continues. We learn to adjust, but our loved ones are never forgotten. Death is truly a sting which was caused by the disobedience of our foreparents Adam & Eve. Thanks be to Jehovah, for providing the loving ransom of his son, Jesus Christ, so that we may enjoy a time when "death will be no more, neither pain nor outcry anymore..." (Rev. 21:3, 4) What a marvelous time to look forward to.##imported-begin##Douglas##imported-end##
