There are scriptures in the Bible to help provide relief of grief and distress. Please read Ps 65:2 that talks about “The Hearer of prayers, people of all flesh will come “ Please accept my deepest condolences; I am so sorry to learn of the death of your dear loved one. Death is the most difficult challenge we, as humans can face. In these troubled times, we all face storms. There are economic hardships, depression, failing health, the loss of a loved one in death - such tempests assail all of us at one time or another, we cannot avoid them. It moves us to see persons who appear quite frail show surprising strength and endure such onslaughts. Often faith is a key (James 1:3). Another key is hope (1 Thessalonians 4:13), there is the hope of the resurrection (John 5:28, 29; Acts 23:15). This knowledge gives us hope, that hope, in turn, gradually softens our grief. It helps us to endure. There are more encouraging Scriptures found at www.jw.org. May God continue to comfort your family in this stressful time of need.
