“ This tribute is written on behalf of my brother Anthony Johnson, who is from Houston, Texas. He and Lorraine are the parents of Kelly Nicole Thomas. He is praying for the opportunity to have a reunion with his daughter Kelly and her two twin daughters. It's been several years since he last conversed with Kelly. Linda Johnson

“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Lorraine Yvonne Thomas. Losing a loved one in death is truly difficult. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S. “ I would like to express my sympathy to Ms. Thomas' family and friends. The untimely loss of a loved one can be painful and difficult to bear, that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1Corinthians 15:26, Isaiah 25:8 and Revelation 21:4. Also, Daniel 12:2 encourages us with the resurrection hope by stating:"many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. May your cherished memories and God's Word of Truth comfort your heart.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##
