

Lorretta Young

February 11, 1976 - December 20, 2019

Lorretta “Bam/Brooke” Young, daughter of the late Curtis Albert Young Sr and Carolyn Young was born on February 11, 1976 in Baltimore, Maryland. Lorretta was baptized at Brown’s Memorial Baptist Church in 1986 by Bishop Miles. She departed this life on December 20, 2019, after living an amazing, free spirited life. Lorretta was called home to become our Angel.

She received her education from Northwestern High School in Baltimore, Maryland. She worked for Rosewood Hospital for several years and eventually went on to retire to become a full-time mother of two beautiful kids, Cedric Lavon Love and Heaven Meagan Moye.

Lorretta kids are the beacon of her life. Cedric and Heaven brought her joy, peace, and comfort. She dedicated her life tremendously to caring and loving her kids.

Lorretta adored kids and was the ‘Matriarch’ of the family. At any time, you would find kids just gathering at her home as she welcomes them with open arms and compassion.

Lorretta had wonderful culinary skills, everyone knew she could burn an home cooked meal. She believed food nurtured the soul and was known for barbecuing and serving up a delicious meal.

Lorretta had a style of her own and everyone that knew her would admit that she was a stunning and original 'DIVA'. She had a love for vintage designer items and could be spotted around town at some of the best consignment shops. She was indeed an icon of fashion with style and grace.

Lorretta leaves a loving remembrance to: her mother, Carolyn Young; one son, Cedric L. Love; one daughter, Heaven Meagan Moye; two sisters, Angela Denise Young (Angee) and Carolyn "Squeaky" Young; two brothers, Curtis Albert Young Jr. and Kirk Young; a devoted friend of 15 years Raymond Lyles, nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.
