

Lossie Mae Ramsey

July 27, 1961 - February 2, 2003

In God there is no pain or sorrow, and in his own time he calls his own home, to eternal rest. On Sunday, February 2, 2003, Lossie Mae Ramsey answered god's call and departed from this earthly life. The first child of two children was born in Jackson, NC, in July 1961, to the late Perkins and Inell Clanton Ramsey. She attended public schools in Baltimore, Maryland. We pause also to thank you for the lives of our late mother and father Perkins and Inell Ramsey, who are now waiting to receive our mother and sister in heaven. Mourning their loss, are her son James and daughter Cassandra, both of Baltimore, MD; a special neice, Tiffany of Baltimore, MD; a sister, Mary Lucille Cherry of Washington, DC, many aunts, Beatrice Mason (Johnnie) and Clementine Person (Jack), both of Hempstead, NY, Josie Person (Bill) and Rev. Edith Ramsey, all of Jackson, MC, Emma C. Gary (Morris), of New York City, Martha Wyche (Waverly) of Sharon Hills, PA, and Betty C. Johnson (Pernell) of Roanoke Rapids, NC, many uncles John Ramsey (Portia) of Hempstead, NY., Mack Ramsey (Rachel) of Lake Mary, Fla.; James Ramsey (Lucy), David Ramsey (Ann) both of Garysburg, Edward Ramsey and Curtis Ramsey of Weldon, NC., and Fuller Gatison of Baltimore, MD, two great aunts, Gracie Ramsey of Garysburg, NC, and Millie Ramsey Ellis of Baltimore, MD; and an adopted aunt Daisey Harris of Baltimore, MD, and a host of relatives and friends.
