

Lottie Bell Braswell

January 10, 1935 - September 1, 2003

Lottie B. Braswell, daughter of the late Raymond and Glossie Ingram, was born January 10, 1935 in Northampton County, North Carolina and attended public school there. At an early age she joined the Cool Spring Baptist Church, where she sang with the choir. In 1957 she moved to Baltimore, Maryland where she lived until her death. She went to work for a private family, and worked there for forty-two years. She couldn't ask for better employers. They were more than two employer-employees, they were like family. The children remained close to her even after she was no longer able to work. There was nothing they wouldn't do for her. On October 20, 1984 she was joined in Holy Matrimony to John Braswell. No children were born to this union. On September 1, 2003, Lottie was called home to Jesus; she died in her home. She leaves to cherish her memory: her sister, Betsy Hutchings, Wayne (Goob) Gerenza of Maryland; two nieces, Angela and Sandy of Maryland; one great-niece, Shaundra Hutchings of Maryland; two aunts, Pauline Moody (James) and Virginia Short (Woodrow); a host of cousins and friends. Lottie was a very outgoing person who was at ease with everyone who was fortunate enough to have known her. Lottie was a wonderful sister. It's going to be difficult not having her in my life anymore. I can't pick up the phone anymore and ask her what can I do about this or that. She was very knowledgeable and always had an answer for me. She loved just about all sports. She really enjoyed baseball, golf, some football, playing cards and eating crabs.

“ My condolences on the loss of your dear loved one. Our family finds much comfort and solace from God's Word the Holy Bible. John 5:28, 29 promises- "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." It is my hope that this will comfort you in this most difficult time.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
