

Lottie L. Breeden

February 4, 1920 - July 23, 2004

LOTTIE LUCILLE BREEDEN was born at 425 South Bond Street on February 4, 1920. She departed this life on July 22, 2004. Aunt Lottie, as she was affectionately known, attended Baltimore City Public Schools. She married Albert Breeden on May 15, 1945. Of this union was born a daughter, Michelle. Lottie had worked all her life at various jobs and retired from J.H.J. after many years of service there. Lottie was living in a senior citizen apartment building until her health deteriorated and she went to live with her brother and sister-in-law, Johnny and Gladys Parrish. She became ill and had to be rushed to the hospital where she passed away. She leaves to mourn: her daughter, Michelle Breeden, sister, Gertrude Fields; two brothers, James and Johnny Parrish; two sisters-in-law, Alma Parrish and Gladys Parrish; brother-in-law, George Fields; four grandsons, Antuane, Darren, Steven and Dontae; two great-grandsons, Dontae Jr. and Antuane Jr. She also leaves to mourn numerous nephews, nieces, and friends, including Herbert Dixon, a devoted friend. We will all miss her dearly.

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##
