

Lottie M. Hill

August 10, 1933 - May 24, 2002

Lottie Mae Hill, daughter of the late Clifton Langston Hurtt and the late Elizabeth Hurtt, was born on August 10, 1933 in Baltimore, Maryland. After a short time of illness, God sent His angels to bring Lottie Mae home to rest on May 24, 2002. Lottie Mae enjoyed her life. She was a graduate of Dunbar High School and attended Morgan State College. Lottie Mae also attended the nurses program at Johns Hopkins Hospital, where she graduated as a LPN. She enjoyed being a nurse, sharing and caring for others. She worked for twenty years at Maryland General Hospital in the newborn nursery, where she cared for newborn babies. She retired from Maryland General, where she was well loved and missed. She met and married Jerome L. Hill in 1952. Lottie Mae loved to play bingo, solve crossword puzzles, watch videos and travel to Atlantic City. She loved to have fun. She had a heart for helping her family, friends and neighbors. She leaves to cherish her memory: her beloved daughter, Elizabeth (Liz) and three grandchildren, Rodney, Bridgett and Michael; two sisters, Gladys A. Wilder Hurtt and Elizabeth Matthews (her best friends); a host of nieces, nephews, great and great-great-nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. She will be greatly missed. MATo see your face, to watch you smile To sit and talk with you a while Would be my greatest wish today You left so suddenly without a good-bye But you left me memories that will never die Thanks you for loving me and giving me your guidance and wisdom. I love you dearly. Your Devoted Daughter

Tribute Wall

“ Lottie M. Hill

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Please accept our heartfelt sympathy in your time of great sorrow. Only those who have lost a loved one can know the depths of your feelings. We hope our caring will make your sorrow easier to bear.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM