

Lottie Mae Washington

November 27, 1927 - October 20, 2002

Lottie Mae Gibson Washington, daughter of the late Willie Mae Gibson was born on November 27, 1927 in Bainbridge, Georgia. She departed this life on Sunday, October 20, 2002 from the Multi-Medical Center in Towson, Maryland. She received her education in the Georgia schools. She later met and married the late Honor Washington in Bainbridge, Georgia. From this union two daughters were born, Ruby Lee and Flemmie. Mother Lottie Mae Washington's spirit walk was very special. Mother Lottie Mae Washington was baptized in the name of Jesus on January 23, 1972 and received the precious gift of the Holy Ghost in 1972 at the Refuge Way of the Cross Church of Christ, in Baltimore, Maryland, under the leadership of Bishop Leroy H. Cannady, Sr. Mother Washington was a faithful member. She was active in the Holy Ghost Inspirational Choir, The Willing Workers Club and a faithful member of the Sunday school Ministry until her health failed her. She loved to visit the sick and shut-in. She found pride and joy in making others happy. She loved her pastor and her church. She was a very quiet person and she loved good food. She loved good singing and to listen to the Word of God. Mother Lottie Washington leaves to sorrowfully mourn her departure; one daughter, Ruby Lee Richards of Houston, Texas; a host of grandchildren and great-grand's; four sisters, Emma Lee Smith of Bainbridge, Georgia, Mary Alice Henderson of Baltimore, Maryland, Bessie Lee Spencer of Houston, Texas and Victoria Harper of West Palm Beach, Florida; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and other relatives and Refuge Family.
